

Would Compel All to Do More Naval Building

Tardieu's Demand For 725,000 Naval Tonnage a Serious Threat Against the Success of the London Conference.

London, Feb. 17 (AP).—As the five power naval conference entered its fifth week it was without an all important figure. Andre Tardieu, French Premier, whose demand of 725,000 naval tonnage for his government has threatened serious possibilities for the outcome of the conference.

M. Tardieu is in Paris, suffering from an attack of grippe, which developed from a severe cold which he had when he left here for his capital Friday. His condition also probably has complicated French internal political conditions, which have threatened his government at home while he was in London.

Replacing him temporarily at the head of the French delegation here, was Aristide Briand, French foreign minister.

Officially the delegations expressed no particular pessimism because of M. Tardieu's absence, but some observers put it baldly that very little work may be done on reconciling the French naval demands with what the other nations think it fit and proper France should have, until M. Tardieu is available for further direct discussion of the problem. And as matters stand, the French demands represent the crux of the conference negotiations, that phase of the parley which largely will determine the naval building programs of the five powers for the next few years.

The situation briefly is this, that France is asking for a total naval tonnage as of 1936 of just less than 725,000 tons has set a figure involving about 240,000 tons of building in that time. The figure is so close to that which Great Britain has asked for herself and, ergo, that of America, that the British government may have to build beyond its proportionally, unless France should reduce it.

Building Instead of Reduction. Great Britain, if forced to build more ships than she and America tentatively had agreed upon, would compel the United States to the same necessity. Japan, consequently, might also have to rearrange any setting of figures she may have done. The outcome of the situation thus would be naval building programs as contrasted with programs of reduction visualized when the conference first met.

There is rather general recognition that the conference is just the stage where actual reductions of fleets are going to be possible; the impression widely held is that practically every nation is going to have to do some, perhaps considerable, naval building when the conference is completed; the probable outcome of the conference thus would in its maximum aspect be only limitation, although limitation, for five years even, would be a considerable accomplishment in itself.

Mediterranean Security Pact. M. Tardieu's alternative to a tenacious sticking to his figures, a Mediterranean security pact in which Great Britain and the United States would join, is looked upon none too favorably here, either by the United States delegation which wishes to keep itself free from Mediterranean entanglements, or by the British government.

It seems to be the French hope that if America could be a party to a four power pact to keep peace in the Pacific she could also sign a Mediterranean pact thus materially, possibly, aiding arms reduction. The delegations generally are, at this stage, devoid of optimism. Some of the press have adopted a frankly pessimistic attitude. Every one probably realizes more than ever before some of the serious and seemingly insoluble problems which are confronting the conference. But hope has not been abandoned that some sort of a satisfactory agreement finally will be reached.

CUSTOMS PATROLMAN FREED FROM MURDER CHARGE.

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 17 (AP).—Accused of a slaying charge, Emmet J. White, suspended United States customs patrolman, returns to duty in the Duluth district today.

White was freed by a jury in federal court last Saturday night after trial on an indictment returned in a state court charging second degree murder for the death of Gust Henry Wirkkula, Big Falls, Minn.

Wirkkula was killed on a county road near Little Fork, Minn., when White fired at the former's automobile last June as Wirkkula failed to stop promptly at a command of officers who had intended to search for contraband liquor. No liquor was found.

CELEBRATE "DEATH OF RELIGION" IN CHITA, SIBERIA.

Chita, Siberia, Feb. 17 (AP).—In response to the demands of 10,000 workers who paraded the streets today with anti-religious banners, the Soviet authorities closed all churches, synagogues and shrines in Chita.

These will be converted into schools and "cultural" institutions. The government's decision was hailed with shouts of approval by many fanatics who, as night approached, held a torchlight procession and celebrated "the death of religion."

Scherers Have Hearings Later

Hearing in Case of Edward J. Scherer, Whose Car, According to the Police, Struck Ralph Gregory, Thursday—Mother's Hearing February 25.

A rather unusual coincidence is that of two brothers being under arrest for driving cars that struck two men on Broadway. Several weeks ago Joseph Scherer, of Connelly, was arrested, after his auto had struck and severely injured Clarence Blackwell, a conductor on the local trolley road, while Blackwell was busy flagging his car across the Broadway crossing. The hearing has been adjourned several times and is now set down for February 25, in police court. Friday afternoon Edward J. Scherer, a brother of Joseph Scherer, also of Connelly, was arrested charged with operating an automobile on Broadway while intoxicated. According to the police it was Scherer's auto that ran down and injured Ralph Gregory of the furniture house of Gregory & Company. Mr. Gregory is confined to his home by his injuries. Saturday in police court Edward Scherer's case was set down for a hearing Thursday morning in police court.

Many Arrests At Hotel Raid In Philadelphia

The Prisoners, Men and Women in Evening Clothes, Taken To Police Station In Motor Patrol—Claims Raid Was Illegal.

Philadelphia, Feb. 17 (AP).—The prohibition laws "are binding on the rich and poor alike," Director of Public Safety Lemuel D. Schofield declared today in discussing the raid on two private suites in the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, in which 15 men and 14 women were arrested charged with illegal possession of liquor.

The 24 persons arrested were members, wives of members or friends of members of the Philadelphia Club of Dining House Christians, who had gathered in the rooms early yesterday after a winter dance given by the club in the upstairs of the hotel.

The prisoners, all in evening clothes, were taken to a police station in motor patrols and released on copies of the charge for hearings today. "Eight of them gave the names and addresses of executives of large printing and ink supply firms in or near Philadelphia."

"Police said they had confiscated several bottles of alleged whisky and gin and a quantity of ginger ale in the two suites. Director Schofield said he would try to cause the arrest of officials and employees of the hotel and would ask that the hotel's dance license be revoked."

Characterizing the raid as "illegal and unwarranted," Horace L. Wiggins, managing director of the hotel and vice president of the United Hotels Incorporated, announced that the hotel management was prepared to give legal assistance to all those arrested.

"Guests at any hotel," Wiggins said, "are entitled to the same privileges as those enjoyed in their own homes. The entry of police without warrants is a blow at the freedom of citizens."

Workman's Auto Hit by Engine

Walter Workman of 280 Main street, and William Harp of 5 Delta Place, were injured and Workman's Oakland sedan was badly damaged when it was struck by a locomotive on the Ulster & Delaware railroad crossing on Hasbrouck avenue, at Murray street, about 6:15 o'clock Saturday evening. Workman was cut on the hand and about the head, while Harp received a bruised arm. According to Workman's report to the police department, he was driving on Hasbrouck avenue and did not hear the locomotive until it was too late. He said his car was struck on the right side and the car slid about fifty feet into Murray street.

TWO FIRES KEPT FIREMEN BUSY HERE ON SUNDAY

The fire department responded to two still alarms of fire on Sunday in the city. The first was about 8 o'clock Sunday morning for a fire in a wood box in the kitchen of the home of Anthony Frederica at 206 Flatbush avenue. The only damage was to the wood box.

About an hour later the firemen responded to a call for a fire in the two story frame building at 595 Broadway, adjoining the Broadway Theatre, and occupied by the Esopus Tile Company. The fire was confined to the first floor and although considerable damage was done to one side wall and the ceiling the fire was confined to the room in which it originated.

Two Men Drank Wood Alcohol

Elmer Ellsworth and Edward Slater, Both of Hurley, Were Found Intoxicated Sunday—Drunk Wood Alcohol—Taken to Hospital.

Sunday afternoon Officer Fatum found Elmer Ellsworth and Edward Slater, both of Hurley, intoxicated in the rear of the Kelly grocery store on North Front street. Both men were taken to the county jail and later in the day, Ellsworth was taken violently ill and was removed to the Kingston Hospital where it was found he had been drinking wood alcohol. Later Slater was also conveyed to the hospital for treatment. Both had their stomachs pumped out and were given other treatment. Slater received sufficiently to be removed to the jail again, where he spent Sunday night. Ellsworth had recovered this morning and was brought over to the city jail.

Later in the morning both men were arraigned before Judge Culliton in police court, and entered pleas of guilty to public intoxication. They said, in reply to questions by the court, that they did not know what they had been drinking. They had come to East Kingston on business and while there had been offered a drink.

Sergeant Shapson informed the court that the doctor who had attended both men at the hospital had stated it was wood alcohol they had been drinking.

Judge Culliton fined them each $5 and suspended the payment of the fines on the promise that both men would return home where jobs awaited them.

Nelson Rush took charge of their horse and wagon at the time the men were arrested.

Searchers Find Borland's Body

Point Barrow, Alaska, Feb. 17 (AP).—The body of Earl Borland was found last Thursday, wireless advisers received here today said. The body was covered with five feet of snow and was near the engine which had thrown 100 feet from the wrecked plane in which Carl Ben Eickson and Borland were flying to the inbound steamer Nantux November 9.

Nineteen men searching for Eickson's body resumed work today after a three days' interruption due to storms.

It was believed that Borland was almost instantly killed when the plane struck the tundra. His body was taken to camp and will be moved to the motorship Nantux tomorrow. It was while flying from Teller, Alaska, to the ice bound Nantux to transport passengers and furs to Nome that the plane crashed.

The searchers are working under hazardous conditions, living in tents and snow houses. Pilot Harold Gillam, returning from the scene of the search, brought word of the finding of Borland's body.

BECKER ON TRIAL FOR KILLING AUBURN KEEPER

Auburn, N. Y., Feb. 17 (AP).—Max Becker, Brooklyn gunman and alleged rioter during the December uprising at Auburn prison went on trial here today on a charge of murder, first degree, in connection with the killing of Principal Keeper George A. Dunford during the riot.

He is the last of the convicts the state says took part in the fight for liberty to be brought to account. Seven rioters fell in the battle with officers who barred their way to freedom. Saturday three others were convicted of first degree murder charges. Three more, tried with them, were acquitted of the charge which resulted from the killing of Henry Sullivan, convict, during the riot. One of them is a lifer, the other two, long termers, are back with him in Auburn serving out their sentences.

Becker is accused of having shot and killed Dunford soon after the riot broke. His counsel sought a change of venue on the plea his client could not get a fair trial in Auburn. His plea was denied.

MOTHER OF EIGHT IS CANADA'S FIRST WOMAN SENATOR.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 17 (AP).—Canada's first woman senator will be Mrs. Norman Wilson of Ottawa, mother of eight children.

Appointed by Premier MacKenzie King, she will be sworn in when Parliament opens Friday. She will be known as the Honorable Catherine Wilson.

The appointment of Mrs. Wilson ends a long fight by women for a representative of their sex in the National Parliament.

About two years ago the Supreme Court decided that the word "person" in the part of the British-North American pact providing for representation meant only "male." But after the recent agitation, the judicial committee of the privy council reversed the finding of the high court and decided women were eligible for senatorship under the pact.

Car and Bus Collide.

Orrin Lyons of 147 Emerson street, reported to the police Saturday evening that his Ford car was struck by a Kingston Transportation Company bus at Clinton avenue and Pearl street. He said his car was damaged, but no one was injured.

Coldest Weather Of the Winter Grips the East

Several Deaths and Much Suffering as Zero Temperature Follows in Wake of Storm—New York City Has Heaviest Snowfall.

New York, Feb. 17 (AP).—The coldest weather of the winter, which came in the wake of a snow storm, brought death and suffering over the week-end to the North Atlantic states.

In New England the storm was accompanied by a northerly gale. Three deaths in Boston and one each in Fall River and Norwalk, Mass., were attributed to the storm and the cold. Shipping in Boston harbor was hampered. On Cape Cod snow drifts stalled automobiles and even snow plows. Springfield, Mass., had the lowest temperature recorded in New England, one degree below zero.

In New York city the temperature reached a minimum of 7 above zero. The city had a fall of 3 1/2 inches of snow, the heaviest fall of the winter.

Roads in outlying sections were blocked by drifts while in the city 6,522 unemployed men found temporary work with the snow removal gangs, augmenting the force to 18,662. A fleet of trucks and plows numbering 1,344 pieces were used to clear thoroughfares.

The cold was general over central New Jersey, a minimum of four degrees being recorded at Newark.

Temperatures of 15 degrees below zero were registered in Bradford and Hampton Station, Pa., while other sections had readings ranging from 12 to five below. The snow storm visited virtually the entire state. At Harrisburg the temperature went to five above, while at Pittsburgh it was four below.

Ten Fatalities in New England.

Boston, Feb. 17 (AP).—Zero blizzards gripped New England today with the toll of the winter's fiercest storm set at ten lives.

On the trail of bitter gales and a heavy snowfall which swept the coastline and the interior early yesterday, the thermometer dropped rapidly during the day. Cold and exposure and accidents during the storm caused the fatalities.

Exhaustion and exposure in the severe weather took three lives in this city and a railway employee was fatally burned while thawing frozen switches. Deaths were attributed to the cold in Lowell, Fall River, Webster and Providence, R. I. A traveler was killed by a train in the blinding snow and a Yale student from New York city died at Simsbury, Conn., in a fatal automobile accident caused by icy pavements.

Cape Cod was lashed severely by the storm, with drifted roads holding automobiles and snow plows fast and heavy seas pounding the shore. Below zero weather and a heavy gale all day was reported at Montpelier, Vt., and six foot snow drifts piled up at Portsmouth, N. H., before the wind, while the thermometer only sat a few degrees above zero before midnight.

Six inches of snow fell in Fall River and four inches in this city. Southern Rhode Island roads were badly blocked by the drifting snow and different sections of Maine were covered from three to eight inches of snowfall which drifted badly.

Newfield, Vt., had a temperature of six below zero last night. The temperature at Newport, R. I., touched zero for the first time in eight years. Springfield reported zero weather and the reading was five above at midnight in this city.

Sub-Zero Weather Grips Kingston

With thermometers registering from 10 to as low as 15 degrees below zero, the coldest weather so far experienced this winter enveloped Kingston on Sunday night. At 3 o'clock this morning thermometers in the city registered from 4 to 6 degrees below.

Sunday was an extremely disagreeable day, although it was bright and sunny. A cold, biting wind blew throughout the day, and as night fell the weather grew colder.

THREE CASES BEFORE JUDGE CULLITON

Vincent Schoonmaker of Liberty street, arrested for driving to the left of the traffic standard on Broadway, at Railroad avenue, on Friday, was fined $2 by Judge Culliton in police court today.

Richard Conney of Hanratty street, arrested Saturday night for public intoxication on lower Broadway, was fined $5.

Stanley Carson of St. James street, arrested at Catskill on a warrant sworn out by his wife, charging her husband with disorderly conduct, was discharged today when his wife withdrew the complaint.

Killed When Still Explodes

At Least Two Dead and Several Injured When Explosion Wrecks Building.

Reading, Pa., Feb. 17 (AP).—Police and firemen today continued to search the ruins of a three-story brick building, formerly occupied by the Reading Paper Company, for two men and a woman believed to have been buried when a still exploded, causing the walls to collapse.

Two men were killed and several injured when the still and an alcohol cooking plant operated in the abandoned mill blew up yesterday. They were passing the building, which covered half a block, when the first of three explosions sent the walls crashing to the street.

The known killed were Thomas Maggiano, a laborer, father of seven children, and Henry Lahe, 60, of this city. They were buried under the wreckage at the first blast.

Four of the injured, John Manzo, Charles Biscionati and Lewis Dieman, all of Philadelphia, and Juan Munoz, Brooklyn, were said to have been employed at the plant. All are under arrest on suspicion. Dieman and Munoz being in a hospital under guard.

Another man who ran from the building at the first explosion, jumped into an automobile that had stopped across the street and was driven away by two companions.

Police said they found twenty suggestions of alcohol in the wreckage, and scores of small cans containing alcohol were thrown about the streets, some being picked up two blocks away. Windows in all directions were shattered by the blasts. A railroad telegrapher working half a block away was cut by broken glass.

Four Divorce Cases Heard

Special term of Supreme Court on Saturday continued through the noon hour and four divorce cases and several habeas corpus proceedings were concluded before the session was adjourned by Justice Foster.

Charles Gardiner, represented by his counsel, W. J. Miller, sued for divorce against Mary J. Gardiner. The couple were married on May 23, 1924, at Flatbush, and have two children. Mr. Gardiner named as respondents, George North and John Dieroff. The court took the papers in the case.

Mrs. Emma Michels sought a dissolution of marriage from Frank Michels, under the Dutch Arden law. They were married on March 17, 1916, at the city hall in New York city. They lived together for nine months, and the husband returned several times before he finally left. He has not been heard from since 1920. Court also took the papers in this case.

George Levay asked for an annulment from his wife, Cora V. Levay. Plaintiff charges that they had never lived together since their marriage on August 8, 1928, in Ellenville. He stated that he saw his wife at intervals, but that he lived in New York and his wife in Summitville.

Minnie S. Hart of Preston Hollow sought a divorce from her husband, Edward V. Hart. J. L. Patle of Catskill appeared for petitioner. The parties were married in New York city on October 14, 1921. According to the testimony, Mr. Hart had previously been married in Connecticut and Mrs. Hart was the widow of the Rev. Mr. Van Dyck, who died in 1919.

NOUGHT RELEASE FROM NAPANEOCH.

Angelo Alferdino, 15 years old, confined at Napanoch as a mental delinquent, sought to be released before the court, but testimony given by himself and his mother failed to gain his dismissal and he was returned to the institution. Several others who sought release in the court failed to gain their freedom when Justice Foster said that because of the hour he would adjourn court, but that he would hold a special session in Napanoch on March first.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Feb. 17 (AP).—The weather was cold today—cold even for this section of the Adirondack Mountains where below zero temperatures are common occurrences in winter.

Dropping steadily for 36 hours, the mercury stood at 25 below zero at dawn this morning and by 8 o'clock had risen only to 20 below. The sky was clear and there were no indications of any moderation of the extreme cold.

At Tupper Lake, west of here, the mercury dipped to 41 degrees below zero early but rose to 25 below at 9 o'clock. Keeping below zero since Saturday night, the mercury yesterday registered a minimum of 28 degrees below zero.

Canfield Gathers Data On Enforcement Laws

Result of Study Will Be Submitted to President Hoover's Law Enforcement Commission—Will Enable More Equitable Distribution of Forces.

Washington, Feb. 17 (AP).—A research into all phases of prohibition enforcement to gather data which will be presented to President Hoover's law enforcement commission has been inaugurated by Prohibition Commissioner Doran.

Doran said today that he had instructed Palmer Canfield, former prohibition administrator at Albany, and now a legal expert of the bureau, to gather the records of enforcement in all states and municipalities. He added that Canfield had not progressed far enough to make any general conclusion possible but that his study thus far had shown a wide variance of municipal and state statutes relating to prohibition.

When the study is completed the commission expects that it will provide a fairly accurate picture of enforcement conditions throughout the United States and will enable the more equitable distribution of prohibition forces. When the prohibition bureau is transferred to the department of justice the data will be made available to Attorney General Mitchell for use as a basis of reorganization of the enforcement machinery.

At the meeting at services in the Cathedral yesterday, Bishop Manning invited people of all faiths to attend. The meeting will be held in conjunction with the Greater New York Federation of Churches.

Bishop Manning recalled that Pope Pius urged all Christians to join him in prayer on March 19 for the cessation of Bolshevik persecutions and he asked all the clergy and people of the New York Episcopal diocese to pray on that date, in addition to attending the meeting March 16.

The Bishop recalled "the solemn protest against these crimes" made by the Pope and Archbishops of Canterbury and York.

"We all know," said the Bishop, "that the Soviet government is seeking by propaganda and by force to destroy religion and to destroy also those moral ideals which religion has given to the world and that its attacks are directed not against those of any one faith but against all who believe in God."

Many More Churches Abolished.

Moscow, Feb. 17 (AP).—The Soviet Government order the week-end ordered more than a score of churches, synagogues and mosques to be converted into workers' clubs, schools, grain warehouses, and the like.

Officials declared the churches were closed in line with recent policy on church closing program. "In response to the mass demands of the workers," perhaps a coincidence, the conversion orders came at a time when the foreign press and foreign religious organizations were protesting bitterly at "persecution" of Christians in Russia.

In most of the conversions the church bells were removed and converted into metal for industrial purposes. In a number of towns the municipal councils, following Moscow's lead, have forbidden ringing of church bells. A total of eleven churches were abolished in the Sorokhoff district alone while three additional in the Traskulki will be closed shortly.

The closings have thrust a considerable number of ikons on the market which can be bought for a song. Some, made of wood and having no historical nor artistic value, are being sold for firewood while more valuable ones are deposited in the local museums.

Food Handlers To Be Examined

At the last meeting of the board of health it was decided to enforce the state health law requiring all handlers of food intended for public consumption to undergo a physical examination by a physician once a year.

Sanitary Inspector N. J. Cook is now busy calling on the various hotels, restaurants, lunch rooms, milk depots and other business places, notifying the proprietors of the law and furnishing them with cards which they are to have filled out by a physician.

One card is filed with the board of health and the other is kept by the employer. When all food handlers have received a physical examination by a physician the health officer will post a placard in the place of business, calling attention to the fact that the employers have met with the law's requirements.

JUDGE NOTT ASKS FOURTH REPRISAL FOR EDEL.

New York, Feb. 17 (AP).—Judge Charles C. Nott, Jr., in the Court of General Sessions, today requested Governor Roosevelt to grant an additional respite to Frederick W. Edel, who is in the death house at Sing Sing prison awaiting execution for the murder of Mrs. Caroline O. Harrington, actress, December 23, 1921. Edel was scheduled to die this week.

In his request to the governor Judge Nott said that he would not be ready for another week to render his decision on the motion for a new trial which was argued a week ago. He said he had not received briefs from opposing counsel.

The motion for the new trial was made by Edel's counsel, Alexander I. Horke, on the ground of newly discovered evidence and the suppression of evidence by the district attorney at the time of the trial.

MOSCOW DECREES NINE MEATLESS DAYS EACH MONTH.

Moscow, Feb. 17 (AP).—Moscow authorities today decreed that all restaurants in the city should have nine meatless days each month, it being hoped to save both meat and fuel.

Under present conditions a laboring member of the population is allowed an average of a half pound of meat daily, but even this sharp rationing system has failed to relieve the crisis which led authorities recently to establish a "collective" of all cattle ranches after the manner of the collective farms.

At the same time there is a movement on foot to exclude from all restaurants all non-tolling elements because of the inability of these restaurants to feed the thousands of workers in the city.

MRS. TRACY SUTTON HURT IN AUTO CRASH SUNDAY

Mr. Hornbeck sustained a broken neck while Mrs. Hornbeck sustained a fracture of the pelvis bone.

It was said, by adults who attended the game, roughness and unfairness on the part of the referee caused the outbreak, according to those who got unruly. Students were not held responsible for starting the trouble.

7 Hours in Bed and Not 7 Minutes' Sleep!

The Toll Acidity Takes

When you go to bed dog-tired and still can't sleep and you rise in the morning more tired than when you went to bed, it is a sign you're "acid." Excess acid, formed in the stomach as a result of our unnatural eating habits, causes acid-indigestion with gas, sourness and burning and sets up poisonous putrefaction in the gastro-intestinal canal which saps our strength and vitality and so takes our nerves that we can't sleep at night or work efficiently during the day.

Magnesia Oxide, developed in Germany by a famous, 100-year-old pharmaceutical house, corrects acidity in the right way. Upon contact with the acid in the stomach, Magnesia Oxide generates mucin, or mucus, which coats the stomach wall, and the alkaline gastric mucus, checks putrefaction in the gastro-intestinal canal and stimulates the activities of the intestinal walls which aids the natural movement of the bowels. All three effects are necessary to the true correction of acidity.

5-Day Acidity Test

To ascertain just how "acid" you are, make this test. Get a package of Magnesia Oxide from Melville Drug Store or any other good drug store. Take two after each meal for a few days and see how much better you feel—how much more soundly you sleep and how much more energy you have. If you don't get more than snoring results, return the balance of the Oxide to the drug store and he will refund the purchase price promptly and in full.

Eleanor Gunn On Fashions

THE BOLERO BECOMES A USEFUL MEMBER OF SOCIETY

New York—Among the most oft repeated phrases in all reports of the fashions launched for spring by the Paris houses, is the bolero theme. It is effectively coupled with princess lines in some instances—this combination being one of the features of the Lucien Lelong showing. It is quite as effectively used with belted frocks elsewhere. The pajama ensemble, with bolero substituting for long coats, is another interesting development which focuses the eyes of the fashion-minded on the bolero. Obviously there are many kid varieties of the bolero. As in the illustration, many are of the same material as the frock. This seems especially true of the lace frock which is one of the most important of all frocks this spring. Color rather than black is the new note in laces, but one is always ready to make an exception and admit that reliable old friend, the black frock, into the schemes of things.

ELEANOR GUNN On Fashions

Blouses Are Dainty and Sometimes Short Sleeved

(Copyright, 1930, by Fairchild)

The blouse is second to nothing in importance in a spring which brings such a wholehearted revival of the tailored suit. The matching blouse vies with the costume which has one in effective contrast. Soft lugerle blouses are among the new interests. Organdie, handkerchief linen and batiste are among the chosen fabrics. Here are two of the softly feminized types both with soft necklines but contradictory as to sleeves. The short sleeve, puffed and otherwise is how-ever a strong possibility for spring favor. Sleeveless blouses are also shown.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Pretty Frock for a Little Miss.
6734. Plaid woolen was chosen in this instance, with velvet for trimming. Wool crepe or crepe de chine is also suggested, with silk crepe on a contrasting color for collar, overlap and cuffs. Cotton prints and gingham are nice too. The waist portions are lengthened by plaited skirt portions. The waist opens under the overlap at the neck which is finished by a neat collar. The sleeve is in bishop style gathered to a band cuff.

The pattern for this design is cut in 4 sizes: 2, 4, 6, and 8 years. To make the dress for an 8 year size will require 2 1/2 yards of 32 inch material. For collar, cuffs, and overlap of contrasting material 1-3 yard is required 32 inches wide, cut crosswise.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Fashion Book Notice.

Native of the Tropics
Arrozados are available in a number of varieties from August and September on through to the first of the year, says Nature Magazine. The tree, lean and rather attractive, often reaching to be from 30 to 50 feet high, is a native of Mexico, Central America and the mountains of Colombia. Thus, there are three main branches of the family, but the common, or West Indian avocado, extensively grown in South Florida, is the most tropical and bears the largest fruit. This fruit is covered with a leathery skin, which, when ripe, is green or, in some instances, a shade toward purple.

Germany Tops World In Air-Mark Tilt; U. S. Next

BY OSCAR LEIDING
Aviation Editor
(Associated Press Feature Service)

Washington (AP).—American aviation is wondering whether world records tell the tale of supremacy in the air.

Of 113 official records newly listed for 1930 by the Federation Aeronautique Internationale and the National Aeronautic association, for all types of aircraft, the United States holds but 28.

Germany leads with 43 records to her credit. The other holders include France, 25; Great Britain, 8; Switzerland, 3; Italy and Hungary, 2 each; and Poland and Czechoslovakia, 1 each.

The United States is supreme in a single class, refueling of air-planes, with the duration record of 420 hours and 17 minutes, set by Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brien, and the distance mark of 3,233.26 miles, made by Capt. Lowell H. Smith and J. P. Richter.

A. H. Orlebar's feat of travelling 357,723 miles an hour gives Great Britain the maximum speed record; Will Nosenhofen, of Germany, holds the altitude record of 41,794 feet.

Lieut. Apollo Soucek gave America the seaplane altitude record of 38,549 feet and plans an assault on Nosenhofen's mark. Lieut. T. G. W. Settle and Ensign W. Bushnell hold four balloon records after a single three-day flight.

Of the 26 new records written into the books at the close of 1929, Germany was responsible for 11; the United States, 7; France, 5; Great Britain, 2; and Poland, 1. Twenty-one of the 28 records held by the United States are old marks.

Interesting Talk to Y. Auxiliary by Mrs. Chidester

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. C. A. held its February meeting, Friday afternoon. Mrs. C. S. Chidester had charge of the session and gave an interesting talk on the life of the general public, taken from the Lincoln biography by Ida M. Tarbell.

Mrs. Herbert Van Deusen reported upon the senior boys' work, of which she is chairman. At the Hi-Y supper on January 15, 43 were present. On January 22, the boys attended the pancake supper served by the Auxiliary. On January 29, 100 were entertained and 54 were served.

Mrs. Elbert Van Keuren, chairman of the junior boys' work, sent appeal for cakes for the bean supper held each week. Four cakes were required each time and cakes are promised for nearly a month.

The secretary read a letter from Mr. Lewis Brown, thanking the auxiliary for the plant sent during recent illness. A letter of appreciation from the general secretary, S. Schoonmaker, was read; in which he thanked the auxiliary in half of the Y. M. C. A. staff and members for the gift of two reading lamps for the large reading room at right of the entrance hall.

Mrs. D. N. Secore, chairman of the house committee, reported that 5 were served at the pancake supper held January 22. She had written "thank you" letters to the Liberty Flour Company, who furnished the cakes and syrup and had the cakes, also to the Maxwell House Coffee Company, who supplied the coffee.

Mrs. Chidester invited the auxiliary in inspect the two reading lamps which they had purchased for the Y. M. C. A. building room.

The secretary reported on the receipts of the pancake supper. All except the receipts, less the expenses, are about $81.

Miss Beulah Smith introduced Mrs. Mary Chidester, who gave an account of her visit to the Cumberland Mountains, the Great Smokies, Tennessee, the Blue Ridge Mountains and the rice plantations of South Carolina.

Mrs. Chidester stated that she had asked a little girl who of all historical characters she had read about she most admired and would like to be and to her surprise

"UNCLE SAM AT YOUR SERVICE"

THE WEATHER BUREAU'S HOME IN WASHINGTON.

The act of the great Franklin in drawing down the lightning from the clouds, and identifying it with electricity, was one of America's contributions to meteorology. On visiting the home of Uncle Sam's weather man, many of us may be surprised to find that he needs a staff of 200 specialists in Washington, 600 field workers, and the cooperation of thousands of private citizens on land and sea.

The Weather Bureau budget, for 1930, calls for a contribution of 2 3/4 cents from each resident of the U. S., of $3,143,400. Consider the service rendered to each of us for our money. The bureau was established in February, 1870, and although started primarily in the interest of navigation, it now plays an important part in all walks of business and civil life. It is conducted in the interests of all the people.

she replied, "Daniel Boone." When Mrs. Chidester visited Berea, Kentucky, and saw the portrait of Daniel Boone which hangs in Boone Tavern, she was inspired to "read up" on Daniel Boone and she found his life one of such brave adventures and wonderful achievements, that she was much less surprised at the little girl's choice of heroes. She visited Berea College, which is run very economically for the benefit of young people who are obliged to at least partially work their way through college. This is on the Dixie Highway and is a most interesting place. One of the high spots in the work of this college is a revival of the "Fire Side Industries." One cottage family has with loom at which old fashioned bed spreads and all sorts of linen and woven articles are woven. The looms are a great improvement over the clumsy ones used by our ancestors and very beautiful work is done upon them. Mrs. Chidester explained why the "Great Smokies" are so called. The damp air from the ocean meeting the air from the Gulf of Mexico, causes a dense fog, which lifts in the daytime but settles heavily at night, to rest upon these mountains, causing them to apparently smoke. There is no wind to blow the fog away, so that much of the time they have that appearance. The government has purchased thousands of acres in these mountains for a national park. From Spartanburg, in the Blue Ridge Mountains, Mrs. Chidester saw a marvellously fine view. At Georgetown, S. C., she was greatly impressed with the whiteness of the sand and the hanging moss, suspended from the beautiful live oak trees. The negroes of this place are all descendants of slaves imported from Guinea, Africa, to work in the rice plantations. They are distinguished by their extreme blackness, very thick lips and low foreheads. The town is dead as a door nail and the people who have not left there, are poor as poverty, according to Mrs. Chidester. The people with whom she stayed had invested money in four different banks, each of which, in turn, failed. Most of the rice used in the United States used to be furnished by the rice plantations of South Carolina. Now it comes mostly from Louisiana and abroad. Floods, four years in succession, so discouraged and impoverished these rice planters that they abandoned this industry and the rice which grows there now is wild, not cultivated. The old rice planters, in order to keep their slaves employed, laid out beautiful grounds. There is a fascinating old church in Georgetown in which the pews are divided into squares with doors. She rode for 18 miles on a freight boat up one of the rivers without seeing a single town. She visited a colored school and listened to the singing of the children. They sang quartet spirituals in three and four part harmony, chording perfectly, although not trained in sight reading. From a teacher in a white school she learned that Joel Chandler Harris secured his "Brer Rabbit" and "Tar Baby" stories first hand from the negroes and this teacher, although her colored mammy could not read, heard all three stories from her lips. Mrs. Chidester told of the colored mammy's early installation of fear into the children's minds, caused by their belief in the transmigration of souls, which came with them from Africa, and in spite of their conversations to "Christianity," is handed down from generation to generation. She visited a colored grave yard in which the graves presented a most peculiar appearance, being covered with the hair brushes, cups, spoons and other articles used by the deceased in his last sickness, also a result of African superstition. Mrs. Chidester sang very charmingly, to her own accompaniment, some of the spirituals and plantation songs sung by the negroes. "In Boggerman's Ravines," arranged by Gertrude Manly Jones, showed plainly their deep rooted superstition, "Bob White," their personification of birds and animals. The spirituals, "I Ain't Gonna Study War No More," might easily have been written very recently as it fits into the spirit of the Peace Conferences recently held. "There Ain't No Hiding Place Down Here," was a quaint, characteristic spiritual. Mrs. Chidester was given an enthusiastic vote of thanks for her interesting account of her very novel trip and her folk music.

"Y" Quintet Beats Middies

The Y. M. C. A. quintet was successful in its basketball game with the Middletown "Y" team Saturday night at the Junior High School court of that place, trimming the Middies 41-25. It was Kingston's second win of the season over the Orange county boys. A large gathering saw the game.

Middletown started scoring before Kingston, but Coach Dolson's men found the hoop shortly after the Middies began and soon had an 8-2 lead on them. At half time Kingston had rolled up 23 points to Middletown's 12, and kept the lead throughout the remainder of the contest.

Tuesday night the "Y" plays on its home court against the A. T. & T. quintet of Poughkeepsie. The Bridge City boys are billed as a fast aggregation of players, who are expected to give the Kingstonians plenty of trouble.

K. H. S. Prepares For Middletown

Kingston High School varsity basketball team will start on Tuesday afternoon to get in shape for its DUSO game with Middletown High School Friday night, February 21, at Kingston High gym. The Middies were the only team to score over Kingston this season, so the Maroon and White squad is anxious to even matters in the coming game, which promises to be fast and interesting.

Bright hopes are held forth by the Kingston boys who believe they were just off form when they lost to Middletown. In the third DUSO game last week Port Jervis defeated Ellenville, 11-8.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould

(Associated Press Sports Editor.)

Predictions or forecasts are always safer at long range. They cannot be disproved so readily, if in fact they are remembered at all. No great risks are being run therefore in making the guess that:

Pittsburgh will be the National league club most likely to upset the Chicago Cubs while Cleveland will have the best chance of any American league entry trying to check the Athletics.

Washington will come East with another fine crew and give Columbia the sternest chase down the Hudson.

Frank Wykoff of Southern California will be the next intercollegiate sprint king.

Jimmy McFarlin will be the welterweight champion of the world any time he gets into the ring with Jackie Fields.

America will retain polo supremacy and Sir Thomas Lipton will have a sporting chance to win the America's Cup in yacht-racing for the — h time.

France will keep the Davis Cup and Sir Bill Tilden will finally yield to youth in the American tennis championship.

Bobby Jones will win at least one major golf championship, if not two or three, abroad and at home.

Jack Sharkey will win recognition as the world's heavyweight champion by beating Phil Scott and Max Schmeling.

Art (The Great) Shires will engage in no flatcuffs with Manager Donie Bush of the White Sox.
